1. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The participation on the 2nd INTERNATIONAL SALON OF PHOTOGRAPHY ČBETWEEN THE SKY AND THE EARTH 2010«, which is organized according to the rules of the International Federation of Photographic Art (Fédération Internationale de l'Art Photographique, FIAP) and Photographic Association of Slovenia (Fotografska zveza Slovenije, FZS), is open to all amateurs or professional photographers from all around the world. By submitting their works, all the participants certify their authorship and confirm that they are acquainted with terms and conditions of the competition.

In doing so, the participants allow the organizer and the patronages of the competition to reproduce their works exclusively for the promotion of the competition in their catalogue, various articles, magazines, websites and other printed or digital media, without previous notice to the author and free of charge.

All the works must be submitted in digital format JPG or JPEG, the longest side measuring 1280 pixels. The entries can be taken on a digital camera or acquired traditionally and then scanned into a digital format. All techniques of photography and processing are allowed. Digital media will not be returned.

The organizer prints all the awarded photographs in a 20x30 cm format in order to display them at the opening of the exhibition. All printed works as well as the works on digital media will be kept in the organizer's archive.

The submission of the entries confirms that the participant agrees with terms and conditions of the competition.

2. THEMES OF THE COMPETITION

THEME A: FLYING (see the definition)

THEME B: OPEN

3. PARTICIPATION IN THE COMPETITION

Every competitor can take part in both themes by submitting 4 (four) colour or monochrome photographs per each section. The judging will be held separately for each theme. The entries must be submitted in digital form via internet (see the website <http://fotovenopilon.si>) or on CD/DVD with a resolution of 300 dpi and in 20x30 cm format.

Every entry must include the author's surname, name, title of the theme, consecutive number and the title of the theme. Please, use English alphabet only (a-z). For example: the second photograph of Peter Bauman, competing in the theme Flying, is marked as Bauman-Peter— A2.jpg.

4. JURY

The jury makes their decision within the expected deadline, as specified in the schedule of the competition. The three members of the jury, all renowned experts in photography or art, are:

1. Vasja Doberlet (SLO), MF FZS, EFIAP/s
2. Bojan Radovič, (SLO), BA in photography
3. Flavio Mosetti, (IT), MF FZS, EFIAP

The decisions of the jury are final and there is no possibility of appeal.

5. AWARDS

12. DEFINITION – FLYING

Photographs to qualify for the “Flying” theme must either:

- depict an element (object or a living being) for which it is clearly apparent that it moves or is located in the air without any direct contact to the ground;
- deal with the accompanying natural phenomena or circumstances which enable flying;
- depict elements which are associated with the idea of flying or flight.

In case of a vague or indistinct presentation of the idea of flying, the jury decides whether the photograph corresponds to the terms and conditions of the competition. If the photograph is not classified as Theme A- Flying, the jury can place it in Theme B- Open. Their decision is considered as final.
